A young man and a young woman were seated in a car of the early morning Central Vermont train coming into Barre this morning. They were very much interested. Suddenly the young man had a new idea. He hopped to his feet, rushed to the door and then jumped off the train which was going at a good rate of speed. The conductor frantically jerked the bell rope for the train to stop. The train stopped, and the conductor thought a moment, finally giving the signal to go ahead again, saying that if the man was "dumb fool" enough to jump off he was "dumb fool" enough not to get hurt.

The first ice skating rink in Barre was opened in the Central Vermont train station this morning. It was a most successful one.

Along the Vermont river, east of Barre, a fine maple grove is being planted. This grove is planted by planting it in heaps, spreading it with water and permitting it to ferment. Then it is rolled into bales and a man's head, and there are many in pits.

Clearance sale of garments and furs at Abbott's.

A lively fight occurred Tuesday evening in the car which is due in Barre shortly after 6 p. m. Conductor Edward Perry and Motorman George Howe were in charge. Several Scandinavians from Graniteville had "been to Montpelier" and were feeling ugly. They picked a quarrel among themselves and when Conductor Perry tried to put one of them off the car, three of them pitched onto him. Motorman George Howe stopped the car and came back to help Perry. There was some pretty lively fist play for a few minutes. Mr. Perry, not being able to get his handcuffs onto the principal in the fight, summoned Special Officer Phelps, who was near, and another light ensued. The car was run to the switch at the corner of Main and Washington streets, where Officer Hamel and Chief Brown boarded it and assisted Special Officer Phelps to take John Johnson, the principal participant, to the station.

BRAVE OFFICER HURT.

Both Legs Broken in Attempt to Stop Runaway Horses.

New York, Jan. 4.—New York's strongest policeman, "Ajax" Whitman, of the bicycle squad, the hero of many an exciting chase after runaway horses, was terribly injured yesterday while attempting to stop a pair of fear-crazed horses attached to an ice wagon.

When Whitman saw the big pair of horses dragging the partially loaded ice wagon in a mad run he started in pursuit, and when he reached a point opposite the heads of the runaways, springing from his wheel, seized a bridle and swung in front of the horses. The bit broke and the policeman fell to the pavement, escaped the flying hoofs, but his legs were caught in one of the wheels of the wagon. Both legs were broken and he was internally injured.

Two mounted policemen stopped the runaways, and the injured policeman was taken to a hospital.

Whitman is one of the best known policemen on the force. He has many medals for deeds of valor or prowess.

GRAFT AND ANTIGRAFT.

It is not a valid excuse for business in our public service that public men in other countries are as bad as ours, or worse, but there is still some satisfaction—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The biggest conflict America has known since the civil war is now on. It is between graft and antigraft. The former is fighting for its life, the latter for all men's liberty.—Philadelphia Press.

We are getting better every day. Each fresh exposure of an iniquity helps. We can even now detect symptoms of the happy day when it will be bad form to be wicked.—Harper's Weekly.

Mollere.

Mollere at the age of forty married an actress aged seventeen, who soon ran away from him.

Why Negroes Are Long Lived.

Among the negro races centenarians are extremely numerous, and it is mostly because they obey the laws of nature. They sleep so much, for instance, that a negro centenarian only spends fifty or sixty years out of his 100 awake, while a white man would be awake for seventy-five years of the time.

Henry Ross.

The boots of Cromwell's soldiers weighed ten pounds apiece, being made of the thickest leather, lined and padded, with roweled spurs attached by steel chains.

Cats In Berlin.

Cats are licensed in Berlin, and every cat in that city must wear a metal badge bearing a number.

The Longest Day.

The longest day of the year in London is sixteen and a half hours, in New York fifteen hours, in St. Petersburg nineteen, in Tornea (Finland) twenty-two and in Spitzbergen three months and a half.

A Hindoo Custom.

The Hindoo maidens have a feast of lamps, very prettily alluded to by Moore in "Jalla Rookh." A lighted lamp is set adrift on the Ganges, and from its fate is foretold that of the owner.

A Chained Dog.

A young dog if kept constantly chained will become half-legged, and his joints will be permanently injured.

Moslem Festivals.

The Moslems have two festivals of special importance, the Greater Bairam and the Lesser Bairam. The former is in memory of Abraham offering his son Isaac and lasts four days.
